Processing of sensitive data

TDM will process sensitive data primarily where it is necessary to enable the Company to meet its legal obligations and in particular to ensure adherence to health and safety and vulnerable groups protection legislation or for equal opportunities monitoring purposes. In most cases, TDM will not process sensitive personal data without the data subject consent (This is the employee, the customer, learner, etc.

If you are handling sensitive data as part of your job duties at TDM, you must ensure that you do so following the guidelines and procedures stated in this policy and according to the data protection law. You also must follow the Information Security Policies and Procedures that form TDM's Information Security Strategy.

Accuracy of personal data

The Company will review personal data regularly to ensure that it is accurate, relevant and up to date.

To ensure the Company's files are accurate and up to date, and so that the Company is able to contact you or, in the case of an emergency, another designated person. You must notify your line manager or Company director as soon as possible of any change in your personal details (e.g., change of name, address, telephone number, loss of driving licence where relaxant, next of kin details, etc.)

Security of personal data

The Company will ensure that personal data is not processed unlawfully, lost or damaged.

If you have access to personal data during the course of your employment, you must also comply with this obligation. If you believe you have lost any personal data in the course of your work, you must report it to your manager immediately. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal without notice. You must follow TDM's all Information Security Policies and Procedures.

Access to your personal data

The Data Protection Act gives you the right to access the personal data held about you by the Company.

The Company will arrange for you to see or hear all personal data held about you within 40 days of receipt of a written request and subject to a £10.00 administration fee.

Handling of Customers personal data

Your role may involve handling customer personal data, for example: apprenticeships provision, and qualification programmes. It is responsibility of all TDM staff to keep customers' data secure and in designated safe places. Also to safely destroy any customers' personal data that is not required by the Company anymore. Please consult with your line manager about the safe handling of customers' personal data. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action.
